

World Federation of Tourist Guide Associations

2013 Macau Declaration for Tourist Guides Around the World

1. WFTGA declares that its member tourist guides act as ambassadors of their countries and regions and as custodians of their area's traditions, history, culture and environment.
2. WFTGA supports the definition of tourist guiding as an area-specific qualification, usually issued and / or recognised by the appropriate authority. WFTGA believes that any person without a qualification is not competent to interpret and explain the cultural and natural heritage and specialities of that area.
3. WFTGA declares it is not ethical or appropriate for anyone to work as a tourist guide without having the above qualifications.
4. WFTGA declares that tourist guides are essential to the tourism industry and should be acknowledged as professionals by tour operators, tourism stakeholders and local and / or national authorities and be fairly compensated.
5. WFTGA and its member tourist guides stand by our declaration that who work in the best professional manner to achieve high standards of service and contribute to society.

“ We are the Professionals, ”

This Declaration was agreed by the WFTGA General Assembly at the 15th International Tourist Guide Convention in Macau SAR China on January 18, 2013.
